Dear Mr Line,

PROPOSED ACTION: (1) ADRIAN BRESSINGTON (2) AWDRY, BAILEY & DOUGLAS v
(1) TIMOTHY LINE (2) RICK KORDOWSKI

Further to my letter dated 3 September 2010, a similar letter was also sent to Mr Kordowski, the owner of the Solicitors from Hell website.

I have now received a response from Mr Kordowski and a copy is attached. You will note that he purports to quote the outcome of a conversation with him and you in which you claim that your libellous comments about me and this firm are in fact true. Please confirm in your response to our letter of 3 September 2010 whether Mr Kordowski has accurately represented your telephone conversation. As you will see Mr Kordowski has offered to remove the posting for a fee. We have no intention of making any such payment and wish to give you the opportunity of minimising the risk of further aggravation of damages by formally notifying us that you are not party to this offer.

If Mr Kordowski represents your telephone conversation accurately, please confirm that this is also your position and that you have no intention of admitting the very clear libel contained in your Solicitors from Hell posting or to agree to our requests as set out in our previous letter.

Yours sincerely,

Adrian Bressington

Dear Adrian,

I have had another look at the listing posted at www.SolicitorsFromHELL.co.uk about you and your firm.

It is a legitimate complaint/opinion and it will stay published as a warning to others.

You can of course, issue legal proceeding via the High Court to have a judge order the listing to be taken down. But only if the allegations transpire to be false!

You should also take note that I have been in contact with your former client (Tim) and he has confirmed that the published allegations are indeed true with supporting evidence.

However, your former client has overlooked the fact that he could have his complaint published 'permanently' on my site.

You still have the option to mitigate your perceived losses/damages by subscribing to my 'Administration & Monitoring' scheme.

Subscribers not only enjoy the instant deletion of complaints from my website but also the deletion of links from search engines such as Google. As if it never happened.

Subscribers in addition will have any further complaints, either repeat or new, intercepted and deleted immediately. For a one off fee, for life.

Some subscribers have even asked for subsequent customer complaints to be copied to their senior partners as a way of learning prior to permanent deletion.

Details can be found here:

I look forward to your response or to welcome you onboard.

Regards

Rick Kordowski

Oh, and just so you know. Other firms Tracing Agents have found that I have no money & no assets (Thanks to my former solicitors).
